

Brentwood, NY –Rep. Steve Israel (D – Huntington) held a Seniors Resource Fair to connect Long Island seniors and their families with local agencies, organizations and businesses that provide services for seniors.

“Many seniors don’t realize that if they have a problem with their Social Security, Medicare or veterans benefits – they can call my office and we might be able to help,” said Rep. Israel. “The Seniors Resource Fair is a way to let Long Island seniors know about all the services that are available in their own community.”

Twenty-six organizations, agencies and businesses participated in the Seniors Resource Fair, including the Social Security Administration, AARP, Suffolk County DA, LIPA/National Grid, Office for the Aging, Long Island State Veterans Home, United Way Long Island, Family Service League, Somerset Garden, United States Census Bureau, Alzheimer’s Association, Northport VA, Good Samaritan Hospital, Department of Social Services, EPIC, Senior Net, Long Island Seniors Council, Taxpayer Advocate, Lifeline, Islip Center for Nursing and Rehabilitation, Town of Islip, Community Development Corporation of Long Island, Suffolk County Office of Minority Health and Certified Prosthetics Orthotist.

Rep. Israel also addressed the constituent services available through his and other Congressional offices. Rep. Israel’s staff can assist with any issue involving a federal agency and frequently helps Long Island seniors who are having issues with veterans benefits, Social Security checks or Medicare benefits.

Rep. Israel serves on the House Appropriations Committee.
